Faculty Initiatives on Teaching and Learning

Faculty initiatives in teaching and learning encompass a range of efforts initiated by individual faculty members with an objective to elevate the standard of education and enhance the outcomes of student learning. These initiatives manifest in diverse formssuch as use of ICT, instructional methods, assessments, evaluation and inclusive class rooms that lead to effective, efficient, and engaging instructions.

In this regard, all faculty members are required to mention the INNOVATIVE TEACHING LEARNING initiatives taken in past/ in practice at present to enhance the quality of teaching-learning process:

Faculty Name: Dr. Charu Saxena Employee ID:E-8966

S.No.	Pedagogical Tools	If Used (Please Tick)
1	Technology driven Pedagogical Initiatives
2	Group Discussions
3	Management Games
4	Case Study	✓
5	Field Projects
6	Simulation
7	Role Plays
8	Flipped Classrooms Activities
9	Innovative Assessments Approach
10	Community Engagement
11	Project based Learning
11	Any Other, please mention

Detailed Description of the initiative undertaken along with supporting evidence (Photos/ Email/ Allocation Proof, etc.)

Description:

Case Study 1: The students of semester one of section 23MBA-107 & 23MBA-119 were taught the case study-Anandam Manufacturing Company- Analysis of Financial Statements in the subject Financial Reporting and Analysis. This case deals with financial statements analysis of a company who is seeking loan from the bank for the further growth of business. Here, the student has to take the decision on behalf of the bank manager that weather bank should grant loan to the client or not. The decision is to be taken on the basis of checking the solvency and liquidity position of the company and after assessing the debt servicing capacity of the bank.

Case Study 2: Punjab and Maharashtra Cooperative Bank Scam (PMC Bank): A Case Study in Coercive Financial Scam To make the students understand the impact of window dressing and manipulations in the financial statements. How government handle such situations? What is the impact on customers?

Proof:

Ivey | Publishing

W16204

ANANDAM MANUFACTURING COMPANY: ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

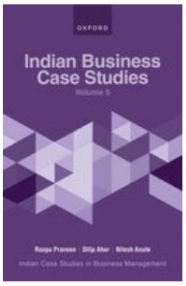

Vinay Goyal and Subrata Kumar Mitra wrote this case solely to provide material for class discussion. The authors do not intend to illustrate either effective or ineffective handling of a managerial situation. The authors may have disguised certain names and other identifying information to protect confidentiality.

This publication may not be transmitted, photocopied, digitized or otherwise reproduced in any form or by any means without the permission of the copyright holder. Reproduction of this material is not covered under authorization by any reproduction rights organization. To order copies or request permission to reproduce materials, contact Ivey Publishing, Ivey Business School, Western University, London, Ontario, Canada, N6G 0N1; (t) 519.661.3208; (e) cases@ivey.ca; www.iveycases.com.

Copyright © 2016, Richard Ivey School of Business Foundation Version: 2016-04-06

In July 2015, Anand Agarwal, owner of the Anandam Manufacturing Company (Anandam), approached the local bank for additional funding of ₹50 million[1] to meet the growing requirements of his garment

Copy or Post

Indian Business Case Studies
Volume V
Roopa Praveen et al.

Search in this book

Contents

CHAPTER

7 Punjab and Maharashtra Cooperative Bank Scam (PMC Bank): A Case Study in Coercive Financial Scam

Get access >

Roopa Praveen, Dilip Aher, Nilesh Anute

https://doi.org/10.1093/oso/9780192869418.003.0007 Pages 49–54
Published: August 2022

Annotate Cite Permissions Share ▾

Abstract

The Punjab & Maharashtra Cooperative Bank (P&MC) bank started its operations in 1984. In 1999 the all India bank depositors association felicitated the bank for the work ethics oriented to depositors' service. Within a period of six years the bank bagged the